FACILITY USAGE POLICY

South Hill Bible Church (“the Church”) owns real estate, including a worship facility all of which is used to promote its religious purposes. The Church seeks to exercise wise stewardship over all aspects of the property. Such stewardship may include occasional member use from time to time for purposes consistent with the Church religious purposes and doctrinal beliefs. Based on these considerations, the Church shall allow use of its Real Estate in accordance with the following requirements and guidelines.

1. Decision-making authority. The Church’s Board of Elders shall make decisions as needed regarding the use of the Church’s Real Estate, all in the best interests of the Church.
2. Doctrinal Restrictions. The church’s Real Estate may be used only for purposes and in ways consistent with the Church’s Doctrinal Statement as stated in Article III of its Bylaws. The Elder Board shall be the final decision-maker regarding whether any use is in conformity with, or contrary to, the Church’s religious doctrine.
3. The Church may request donations or charge for cost-sharing contributions to defray the estimated cost of facility use.
4. Additional insurance coverage may be requested for use of the Church’s Real Estate.
5. The Church’s Board shall be responsible for communicating these requirements and other guidelines to all prospective users of the Real Estate.
