

Dessert For Those Who Are Still Hungry!

- 1) What is the situation in which the parable is told? Who are the people hearing it?
- 2) Does the context indicate why Jesus tells the parable?
- 3) How does the parable develop? What are the motivations of the characters within the story?
- 4) Are there any historical situations or cultural issues that need to be explained, or that have any effect on the meaning of the parable? What surprises you?
- 5) What within the parable is being compared or contrasted by Jesus?
- 6) What is Jesus' concluding statement? How does it fit with everything he has said before? What is this parable teaching?
- 7) How does this teaching of Jesus apply to my life? Can I relate to what he is talking about? Are there any situations that I might face (or have faced) that would parallel the parable? What is Jesus asking me to do?

Dessert For Those Who Are Still Hungry!

- 1) What is the situation in which the parable is told? Who are the people hearing it?
- 2) Does the context indicate why Jesus tells the parable?
- 3) How does the parable develop? What are the motivations of the characters within the story?
- 4) Are there any historical situations or cultural issues that need to be explained, or that have any effect on the meaning of the parable? What surprises you?
- 5) What within the parable is being compared or contrasted by Jesus?
- 6) What is Jesus' concluding statement? How does it fit with everything he has said before? What is this parable teaching?
- 7) How does this teaching of Jesus apply to my life? Can I relate to what he is talking about? Are there any situations that I might face (or have faced) that would parallel the parable? What is Jesus asking me to do?

